Marketing Tips for Circle of Excellence Award Winners

The Bizrate® Circle of Excellence Award is a great way to promote superior customer satisfaction and to give prospective buyers the confidence they seek to place an order. The Bizrate Circle of Excellence is an earned customer endorsement that can be used to boost conversion and to differentiate your site.

Here are a few ways that you can promote your Bizrate Circle of Excellence Award:

On Your Site

Display the Bizrate Circle of Excellence award on your homepage, all pages of your website, in the shopping cart and at checkout.

In Your Emails

If you send out emails to your customers and prospective customers, then be sure to include the award prominently. Let them know that you appreciate their feedback and that you shine at customer satisfaction.

In Print Ads

Bizrate Circle of Excellence Award winners may include the award in their catalogs, print ads, business cards, or flyers.

On Banner Ads

If you promote your site with banner advertising, you also may include the Bizrate Circle of Excellence award in your advertisement(s).

All awards should be linked to a specially created award page on our site, Bizrate.com. The page allows your customers and prospective customers to verify your winning status. The code we provide for the award already does this.

Advertising & News Release Guidelines

The following description should be used when referring to the Bizrate® Circle of Excellence:

The Bizrate Circle of Excellence recognizes those online retailers within the Bizrate Insights North America Network who have demonstrated outstanding performance, as rated by their customers, throughout a one year period. In 2016, over 4,000 online retailers in North America were considered for the award. Winners continuously obtained feedback from their customers throughout the award year and received ratings that are statistically significantly above the Bizrate Insights North America Network average. The ratings are from direct feedback, collected at the point-of-sale and after the delivery of goods, from customers concerning seven key satisfaction indicators:

- ▶ Overall Satisfaction at the point-of-sale
- ▶ Product Selection on the website
- ▶ Ease of Finding Products on the website
- ▶ Repurchase Intent (from the same retailer) after the order is received
- ▶ Product Met Expectations, collected after the order is received
- ▶ On-time Delivery of the order
- ▶ Customer Support assistance

Recognized, earned, and awarded are the standard verbs for use with claims to the Bizrate Circle of Excellence. Named, raise, voted, judged, elected, etc. may not be used.
